THE BAD BOYS

OF GOTHAM CITY

Two-Face and The Riddler have bats on the brain

Batman's never faced a threat from two villains like these before. The Dark Knight (Val Kilmer), Gotham's nocturnal guardian against crime, must stop Two-Face (Tommy Lee Jones) and the Riddler (Jim Carrey) from their plan to conquer Gotham City... and eventually destroy Batman. But Batman is not alone — he can rely on his new partner, Robin (Chris O'Donnell), to help him. BATMAN FOREVER stars two of the all-time favourite villains from the Dark Knight's Rogues Gallery. Here they are:

"One man is born a hero, his brother a coward. Babies starve, politicians grow fat. Holy men perish, junkies become legion. And why is this? Why? Heredity? Environment? Fate? Karma? No friend. Luck. Blind, simple, idiot, doo-dah, luck."

Two-Face

WHO IS TWO-FACE?

Once, Two-Face was District Attorney Harvey Dent, Gotham's leading figure of justice. However, he was horribly scarred by underworld kingpin Boss Maroni during a courtroom hearing and he was transformed into a violent criminal called Two-Face.

Now Two-Face wants revenge against Batman, whom he mistakenly blames for the accident. His signature gesture is his coin toss: Two-Face has a silver coin, with one side scarred, the other mint-condition perfect. Harvey tosses it to decide his next move. If the coin lands with the scarred side up, mayhem is sure to follow. Now he is on a crime wave when the Riddler comes to him. Two-Face is ably assisted by his deliciously evil girlfriends, the sweet Sugar (Drew Barrymore), and the tangy Spice (Debi Mazar).

"Does anyone else feel like a fried egg?"

The Riddler

HERE COMES THE RIDDLER

The Riddler's alter ego is Edward Nygma, a brilliant inventor at Wayne Enterprises obsessed with Bruce Wayne. Edward cooks up his latest invention which can transmit holographic 3-D images directly into the human brain. But the device can also read minds and unlock the secrets people have hidden inside. Edward leaves Wayne's employ to adopt the persona of the baffling and mysterious Riddler and begins sending riddles to Bruce.

The Riddler needs Two-Face's ill-gotten loot to finance Nygmatech, his sinister corporation that will manufacture his fiendish devices. Two-Face and The Riddler team up to face Batman and Robin, in an ultimate confrontation on Claw Island, where the Riddler soaks up Gotham's neural energy.

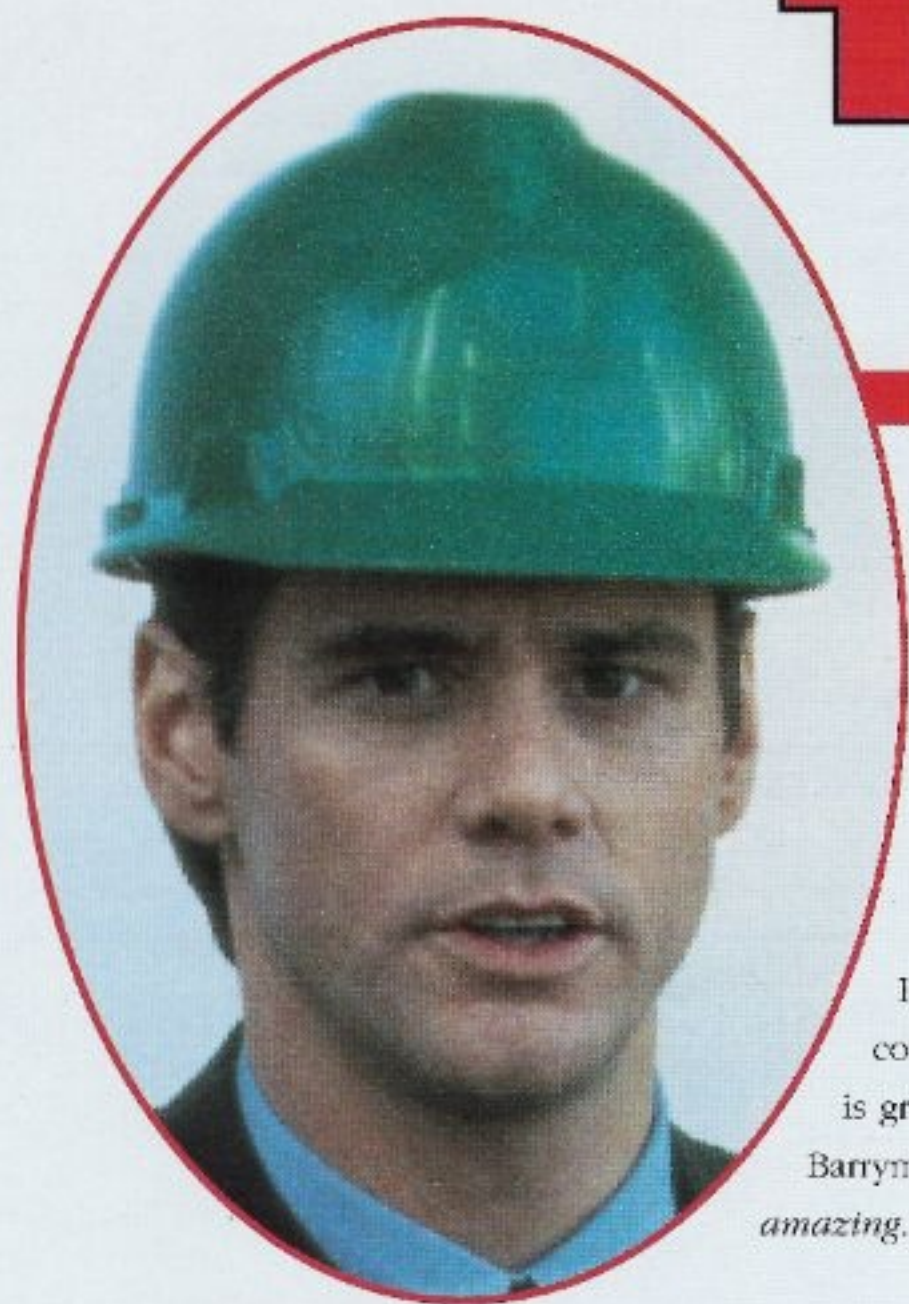

Both Two-Face and the Riddler could only dwell in the fantastic world of Batman. The pair have an amazing wardrobe of outlandish costumes. Their hideouts are brilliant, spectacular testaments to their fiendish desires. And they both have one thing in common: they want Batman out of their way - forever!!

JIM CARREY

Jim Carrey has been the star of three blockbusters in the last year, but success came after toiling for almost 15 years in Hollywood. The Canadian-born actor rose to stardom on FOX-TV's IN LIVING COLOR, while taking hilarious roles in films such as EARTH GIRLS ARE EASY. But it was ACE VENTURA: PET DETECTIVE that made him a household name, followed by the smash hits THE MASK and DUMB AND DUMBER. Carrey says the Riddler role is appropriate to the times. "I like the sycophantic, stalker aspect of the character, the way Edward worships Bruce Wayne," he says. He was the man on the set everyone could count on for comic relief during the long shoot. "Jim is great, he truly has humor coming out of his pores," says Drew Barrymore (Sugar). "What he can do with his physicality is amazing...he just flows."

RIDDLER

RIDDLER / EDWARD NYGMA

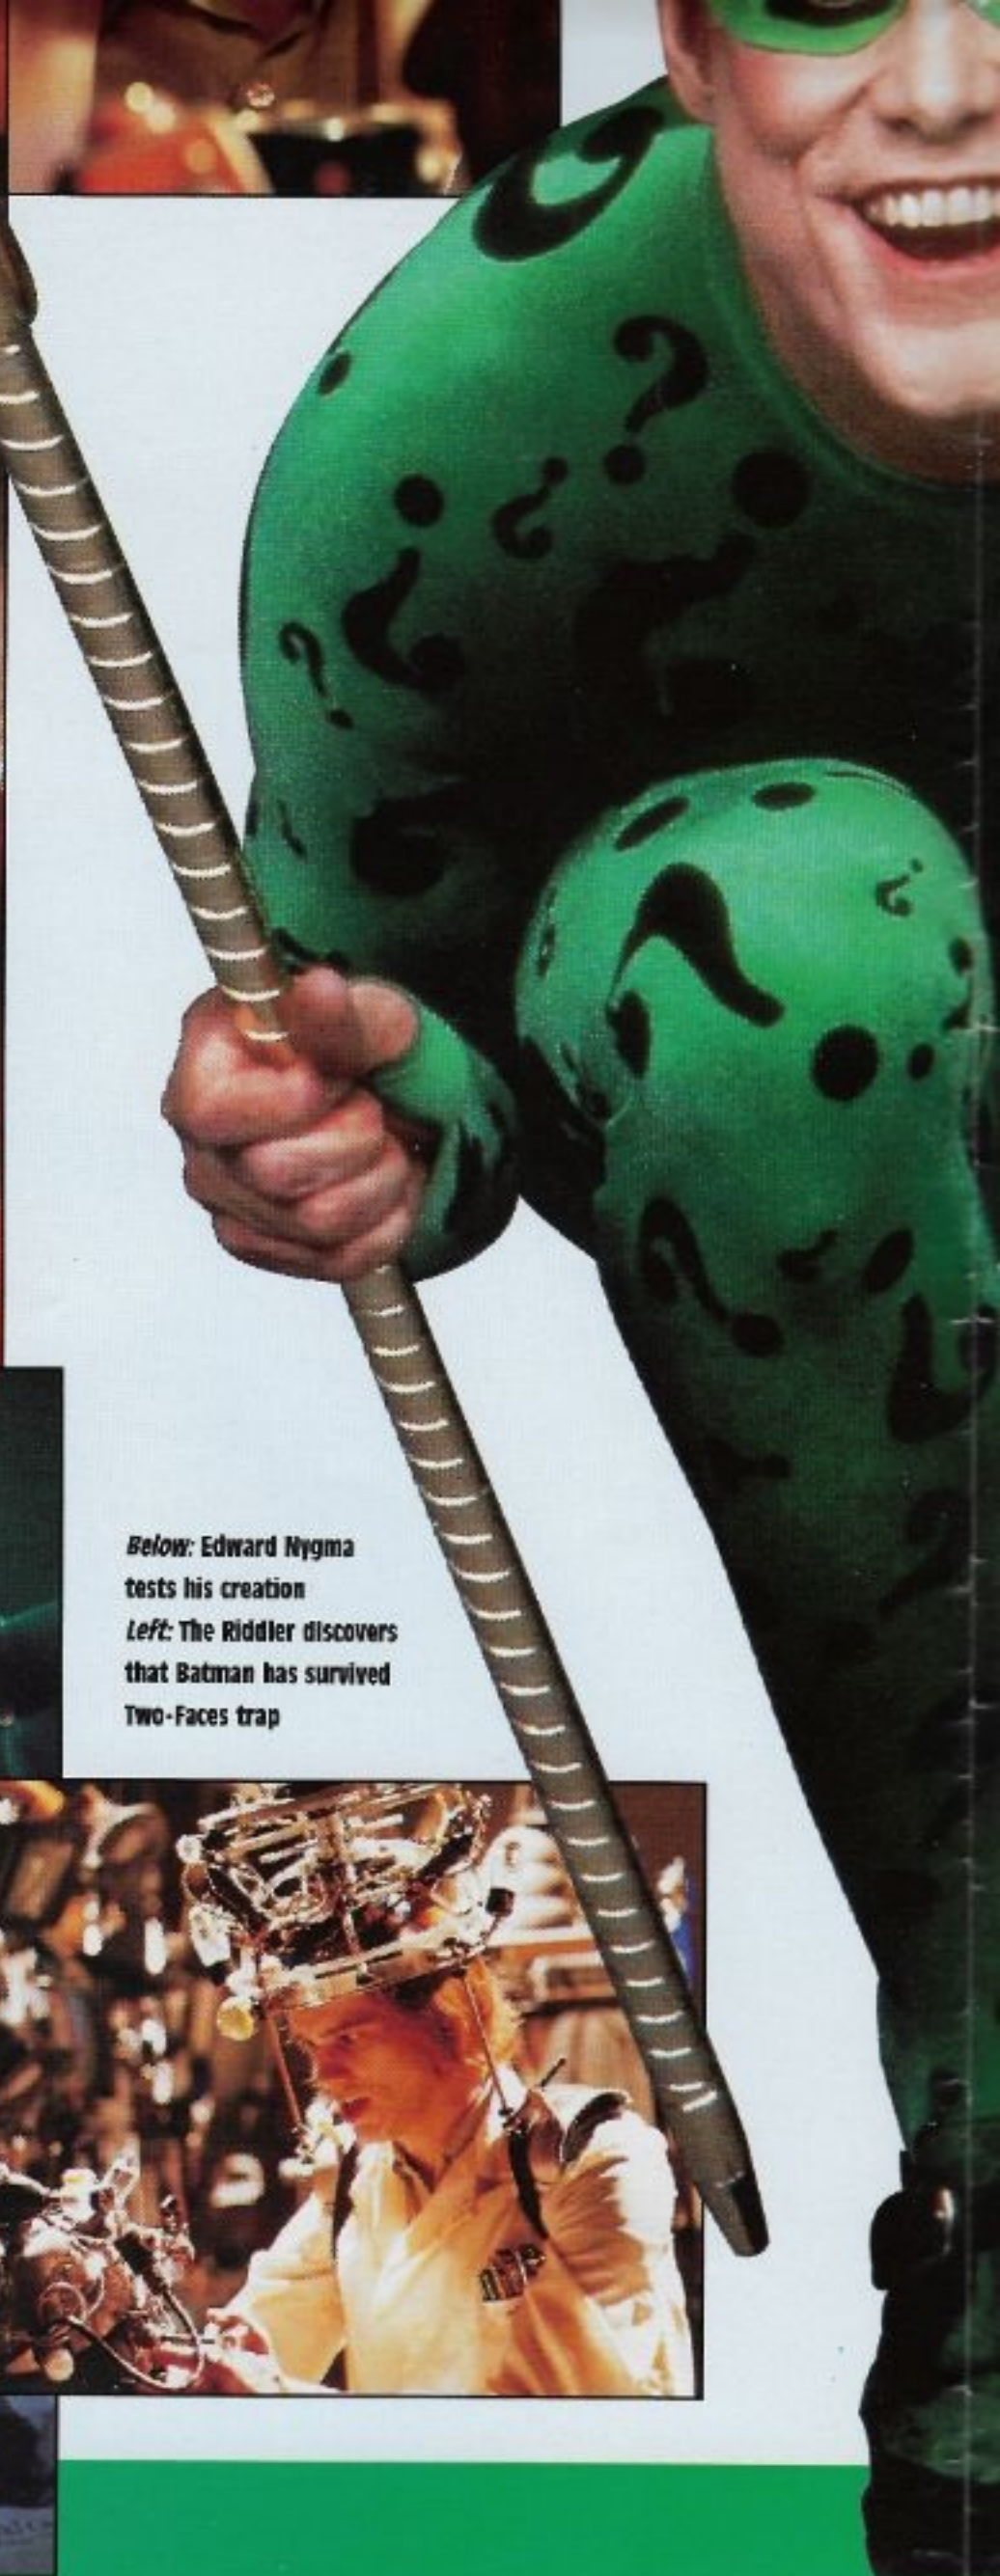

In BATMAN FOREVER, the Riddler is Edward Nygma, the brilliant scientist employed by Waynetech who worships his boss, Bruce Wayne. But Bruce rejects his idea for the Remote Encephalographic Stimulator, a device that enables television signal to be downloaded directly to a person's brain. Edward's hero worship turns to hate - and a desire for vengeance. His project is cancelled, but Edward ignores the directive and works into the night, trying to perfect the device. He tests it on his supervisor, Fred Stickley, only to discover that he can use the machine to feed off the viewer's (or victim's, depending on your point of view!) I.Q. When Stickley tries to fire Edward, the crazed scientist throws his supervisor, strapped to a chair, out of a window and sets out on his new life of crime. What a way to quit... it's a good thing he wasn't looking for a reference...
